GOVERNOR BREWER RELINQUISHES CHAIR ... Governor Brewer gave up his chair to nephew twins of his press secretary, Bob Inman, recently. The twins, sons of Freddie and Betsy Cramton, were on a visit to their uncle along with their mother when they had the privilege of visiting the governor's office. Gavin and Kevin are excited as can be, seen from their expression in the picture. A big part of their excitement is that they are pictured with the honorable governor and their mother and they are occupying the big governor's chair.

The Cramtons reside in Elba. Mrs. Cramton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. "Sonny" Inman.

BRAINSTORMS With Ferrin Cox

Some three or four weeks ago I reported on some dissatisfaction with the methods of the calling out of the all volunteer Elba Rescue Squad. I said that according to one local lady, the police investigated before calling the Rescue Squad to a wreck. Putting it mildly, this upset a number of people, mainly the members of the Rescue Squad, and justly so. They give their time free and only use the police telephone because it is probably the only phone in town with 24 hour monitoring. Anyway the police chiefhastily stated that he had not given out any orders for this type action and would insure that it did not happen in the future. Rescue Squad Captain Hugh Davis guessed right on what call the article referred to and stated he was in the station when it came in and immediately called another member to join him and had the truck warming up with-in 30 seconds. The police went to the scene immed-Flately and upon arriving called back on the radio and said "come on now." By this time the Rescue Squad was two blocks from the station on their way to the scene. To all of this I say good work to unpaid volunteers and keep the payments up on that new ambulance at least until I need your services!

I have been favorably impressed with the maturity of the adults of Elba. This statement; follows the many the adults of Elba. This statement follows the many meetings I attended concerning the schools and public expressions of support by those attending for matters that will probably solidify the growth of Elba. At all of these meetings I attended there was a noted contrast to the attitudes of the people of Mississippi and of the meetings I attended there was a noted contrast to the attitudes of the people of Mississippi and of one million dollars by the form million dollars by the many meetings I attended concerning the schools and public was in Bethlehem Cemetery, with Hayes Funeral Enterprise.

I could talk all day about the apparent hight attitudes of the Alabama State Docks officials but it would be to no avail. Maybe the best thing to do down there is to clean house and put someone there who is job scared and not someone who says "it is none of the taxpayer's business what goes on down here." Or maybe we need to just stop borrowing money and giving them to spend as they choose. From the looks of things, it would not be long before they would be an attutude of "I will do better if you will just bail us out of this money bind we got ourselves into."
